Our Mission

The Delaware County Literacy Council helps adults develop reading, writing, math and English Language skills to thrive in the workplace and the community.

Our History

The Delaware County Literacy Council was formed in 1975 by a coalition of volunteers concerned by the number of people in the community who were unable to read and write. These volunteers tutored adults based on Laubach's model of "Each one, teach one," with student-tutor teams forming the core of instruction.

Useful Terms and Acronyms

DCLC Learner Program Overview and Services

The Delaware County Literacy Council (DCLC) is a private, non-profit educational agency that provides adult education classes and one-on-one instruction through a county-wide network of trained volunteer tutors and small group settings. Our volunteer tutor program is based on the model of ProLiteracy, our national affiliate, and is unique in that it is the oldest and only organization in Delaware County whose sole mission is adult literacy.

Learners who enroll at DCLC often have the following goals:

- Earn a High School Equivalency (HSE) Diploma by passing a high school equivalency exam, such as the GED® or HiSET® test
- Enter into post-secondary education (college) or job training
- Develop employment credentials
- Improve English language skills
- Obtain citizenship

Our learners are grouped into one of two tracks:

1. Adult Basic/Secondary Education (often referred to as ABE, ASE, or HSE) learners
2. English as a Second/Additional Language (often referred to as ESL) learners

Upon enrolling at DCLC, all learners take placement tests. DCLC aims to retest learners after at least 40 instructional hours. These tests are important for various reasons. As an organization, it helps us with monitoring student progress, matching them to appropriate class levels, and documenting employment readiness. It also provides evidence of our services to the PA Department of Education. For tutors and learners, test scores can help motivate students and results can be used to map out future learning goals.

DCLC's Classes:

★ Adult Basic/Secondary Education Classes

Learners with English verbal skills take reading and math tests called CASAS Goals to be placed into one of four levels, ranging from one-on-one tutoring support to high school equivalency (HSE) classes. Some learners may simultaneously enroll in classes and tutoring support.

Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
Tutoring	Beginning ABE	ABE	HSE
Depending on availability, tutoring support may be provided to any level student.

★ English as a Second Language Classes

Learners with limited English verbal skills take CASAS language tests to be placed into an ESL class level. For ESL learners, they can choose between life-skills focused community ESL classes or civics-oriented classes with job training support.

- Community ESL Classes

Community ESL learners can be placed into these levels: pre-beginner, beginner, intermediate, or advanced. Tutoring support is prioritized for learners testing into beginner or below beginner levels.

- Integrated English Literacy and Civics Education (IELCE) ESL Classes

IELCE learners can be placed into one of the following levels: high beginner, intermediate, or advanced. At least 50% of our IELCE learners are expected to matriculate into our integrated education and training program (in which they take ESL classes and a Home Health Aide training program simultaneously).

Tutors

Description

Volunteer tutors are the backbone of DCLC. Tutors are assigned to students that need support. Tutors may be the sole instructor for the student or may provide additional support for a student who has been placed in a class. Tutor-learner matches are made based on availability, instructional need, and interests and strengths. After the matching process, tutors contact their learners to decide when and where to meet for tutoring.

Requirements

- Complete a PA Criminal Background Check.
- Complete DCLC's tutor training.
- Commit to 6 months of tutoring, meeting twice a week for 1 to 1.5 hours each session.

Expectations

Since our founding in 1975 by a coalition of volunteers like you, we have constructed a set of expectations for all volunteers to help ensure that your tutoring sessions will be a positive experience for you and the adult learner.

- ✓ Submit semi-monthly records of the student's progress, attendance hours, and lesson plans to the Adult Education Coordinator.
- ✓ Tutor at a public location and arrive on time and prepared.
- ✓ Travel to the tutoring location separately from the learner.
- ✓ Maintain the agreed upon schedule with minimal disruptions.
- ✓ Communicate any absences from you or the learner to the tutor coordinator and the learner (if you are absent).
- ✓ Honor the confidentiality of all information regarding learners.
- ✓ Periodically attend workshops and/or accessing resources to update tutoring knowledge, strategies, and skills.
- ✓ Maintain communication with the Adult Education Coordinator and keep him/her informed of learner progress, of any obstacles to successful tutoring, and of any changes in the contact info of either the tutor or learner.
- ✓ Report any issues, concerns, or questions to the tutor coordinator.

For any questions or concerns regarding logistics, your learner, lesson objectives, etc., please contact your tutor coordinator, Karen Hamilton at khamilton@delcoliteracy.org.

Classroom Aides

Description

Classroom aides help provide rigorous and differentiated instruction in the adult education classroom. Aides instruct under the guidance of an experienced teacher, providing additional support for different level learners. Lesson plans and materials will be provided by the classroom instructor.

Requirements

- Volunteer in class at least once a week for the entire class, but may participate more often at the discretion of the teacher.
- Complete a brief orientation and classroom observation with the lead teacher.
- Hold a high school diploma or its equivalent.
- Be at least 18 years old.

Expectations

Assist the teacher in improving students' reading, writing, listening, speaking, and math skills.

Each teacher uses their volunteers differently. In some classes, you may also be asked to help pass out materials, read aloud to the class, present a problem or activity to the class while the teacher is assisting someone, or even co-teach a lesson. You and the teacher will work directly with each other to decide what strategies are best.

For any questions or concerns, please contact the Director of Curriculum and Instruction, Jenn Kacimi (jkacimi@delcoliteracy.org).
